Notification dated 25th December 1951.

Re :—Conduct of Election Meetings, etc., under Section 45 of the Mysore Police Act.

No. S. B. 418—51-52. In the matter of granting permission to hold meetings, processions and use of loud speakers etc., in Chickmagalur District for January 1952 election propaganda purposes, I, A. N. Anantaramaiya, B.Sc., LL.B., District Magistrate, Chickmagalur District, hereby issue the following order under Section 45 of the Mysore Police Act for the information of the general public in order to avoid clash between parties and to maintain peace and order.

This order shall be in force from this day 25th December 1951 for a period of fifteen days.

1. Meetings for election propaganda may be held in any part of the municipal area or village panchayet in Chikmagalur District, only after giving due intimation thereof at least six hours in advance to the concerned Police Inspector having jurisdiction, who is empowered to regulate such assemblages and processions under Section 46 of the Police Act by affording facilities for peaceful conduct of such meetings and normal flow of traffic.

2. The use of loud speakers, the playing of music, the beating of drums, tom toms or other instruments and the blowing or sounding of horns or other noisy instruments between the hours of 10 P.M. and 7 A.M. is strictly prohibited throughout the District.

3. Whenever an election meeting is going on in any place, no driver of any vehicle belonging to any other Political Party, containing loud speaker or any other apparatus capable of creating interference or disturbance should take the vehicle near or in the neighbourhood of that meeting and if that is unavoidable, he should pass along silently without causing any kind of disturbance to the conduct of the meeting that is going on. If any of the inmates of the vehicle cause any kind of disturbance to the meeting, the Police Officer on the spot is empowered to prevent all disturbances by detaining if necessary, the vehicle, the driver or any other inmate of the vehicle till such time as the meeting continues.

4. While these restrictions are found necessary in the interest of the maintenance of law and order, all the contesting parties are assured that the Magistrates and Police Officers have been instructed to give permission freely without showing any discrimination between party and party.
